OUTDOOR CLINIC

In-charge : Uma Sengupta, Director Clinical Services

Every Child with special needs is welcomed and given personal attention. We try to focus on the abilities which is used to overcome the delayed developments. Every year 250-300 children benefit from these services, recently we included deafblindness also. Working with multiple disability has been a learning experience. It has been observed that children who do not get exposure to physical activity and play develop sensory issues because their vestibular, proprioceptive receptors are not well trained. Also, malnutrition children have recurrent upper respiratory tract infections and cardiac problems and hence poor physical growth because of recumbency in bed.
